

Los Angeles County Wildfires Resource Guide

Updated: January 13, 2025

"After making some progress battling wildfires that destroyed thousands of homes and killed at least 24 people in the Los Angeles area, firefighters are preparing for a return of dangerous winds that could again stoke the flames on Monday." via APNews

State Response and Recovery Actions

Food and Water Resources

Los Angeles Regional Food Bank is working with government agencies, nonprofit and faith-based partners, and others to respond to the fires throughout Los Angeles County.

Updated food distribution sites can be found here. For updated information on where the food bank is accepting food donations and how to volunteer, please visit the website here.

Westside Food Bank provides a list of food pantries serving Western Los Angeles County and mobile pantries. For more information, please call (310) 828-6016.

Disaster CalFresh is a program that provides immediate food assistance for survivors of natural disasters like earthquakes, floods, or fires. You can get up to a month's benefits, or $281 per person in your household. For more information, visit the website here.

Due to recent fires, the State Water Resources Control Board/Division of Drinking Water is advising residents in the evacuated areas to NOT use the tap water. This impacts residents under Lincoln Avenue Water Company, Kinneloa Irrigation District, Pasadena Water and Power, Las Flores Water Company, Rubio Canon Land and Water Association, and some areas under Pasadena Water and Power. Residents should not try to treat the water themselves and should use bottled water for drinking, brushing teeth, bathing, washing hands, washing dishes, making ice and food preparation.
